

SUBSCRIPTION DESCRIPTION & PRICING

Subscriptions in ELO are of two types, with differing privileges and costs.

Subscriptions are valid for a defined period, ranging from annual to daily and are limited to one subscriber for each subscription. This means that to access the ELO database you must have your own username and password.

Subscriptions provide unlimited search and online viewing of images and data.

Downloads of images are limited by class of subscription.

Downloads in excess of the privileges for each class of subscription are sold in packages of 50 and are priced at a cost equal to 50 x the cost of a single document.
